The success of the two evenings was largely due to the excellent training by Miss Irvin and Mrs. A. P. Garner.

FREE DOLLS

For five girls and boys who are interested in "Anna Belle" and the East Oregonian. For several years "Anna Belle" has been the most popular cut-out feature ever used by newspapers. Her friends number many thousands and good girls and boys and "Anna Belle" Sewing Societies have been organized in every community where she is known. "Anna Belle" is no stranger to the good readers of the East Oregonian. The large doll "Anna Belle" is 25 inches in length and is to be dressed by the little girls themselves or they can utilize some of baby sister's clothes for this purpose. The two small dolls each seven inches long, are already dressed.

Watch this paper or call at this office for further information regarding our free offer for these beautiful dolls, as we are going to give away several hundred of them.

PADEREWSKI DENIES HE WAS THREATENED

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Jan. 3.—Ignace Paderewski, the Polish pianist, declined to discuss reports that he had been threatened by Russian spies for subsidizing a newspaper at Warsaw which conducted an anti-Semitic campaign. His wife, however, practically confirmed the reports, although she belittled them. She said worry over reported threats that his private car would be blown up caused the illness which caused her husband to cancel his engagement at Denver.
